

Lesson 2: He's my son.

Anna: What's that in your bag, Robin?

Robin: They're my photos.

Anna: Who are they?

Robin: That's my family.

That's my wife,
Joan, with our three children - our daughter Imogen, son
Peter and baby boy Matthew.

Anna: Who is he?

Robin: My brother, Tom.

He's a cook. His wife, Linda, is from Paris in France. She's a florist.
Her mother's an artist.

Possessive adjectives:

I/my, you/your, they/their, we/our,
he/his, she/her.

What's their job?

2 teacher doctor hairdresser nurse
banker builder taxi driver policeman postman cook

The Jones Family

Sonia and Walter Jones are Steve's parents. Steve and Liz are married and they have two children, Scott and Kim. Kim is 13 and Scott is 11. They live in London, in Britain. Steve is a builder, and his father Walter is a cook. Liz is a teacher at Kim's school. Sonia doesn't have a job. She is a pensioner.

- a) Liz is Steve's _____
- b) Kim is Scott's _____
- c) Walter is Sonia's _____
- d) Liz is Kim's _____
- e) Walter is Steve's _____
- f) Scott is Kim's _____

- g) Who is Walter? _____ Kim's _____.
- h) Kim _____ Sonia's _____ and Steve's _____.
- i) Liz and Steve _____ Scott's _____.
- j) Who is Liz? _____ Kim's _____ and Steve's _____.

VOCABULARY

husband _____	children _____	florist _____
wife _____	bag _____	artist _____
father _____	photo _____	their _____ mother _____	they're _____	our _____ parents _____	them _____	his/her _____
son _____	baby _____	cook _____
daughter _____	from _____	builder _____

YOUR TURN

My name's Steve, I live in London. I am married to Liz and have two children, Scott and Kim. I'm a builder.

My name's _____

